

Larry McDonald

After I retired I wanted to get serious about photography. I met some people from a PSA club and I joined that club. Several members of the club were officers in PSA and my wife and I joined PSA.

Positions in PSA

Two years doing whose who for Photojournalism

Eight years Region director

Three years Treasurer of Photo travel

Education in Photography

First few years read everything I could.

Classes held by PSA

Enrolled at the local college and took all of their photo classes

Continuing my education in a study group made up of people that have completed the colleges classes.

My wife and I also judge at local clubs and do remote judging for PSA.
